

MEDICAL STUDENT STIPEND OPPORTUNITY

Available to medical students completing longitudinal clinical rotations in qualifying TTOUR (Tribal, Tribal Organization, Underserved or Rural) sites

- 8 weeks total (can be 8 weeks straight (e.g., summer) or split 4:4 or 5:3, etc.)
- Can include more than one qualifying site
- Minimum 20 hours per week
- Can work with program leadership to confirm qualified sites

Other Program Requirements:

- Asynchronous modules – age-friendly health system, dementia care, elder abuse
- Scholarly activity – case report, literature review or narrative reflection
- Meeting with GWEP leadership

For more information, contact:
Jennifer Reichstadt at jreichstadt@health.ucsd.edu

This project is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), as part of grant number U1QHP53055, Geriatric Workforce Enhancement Project award totaling $5 million.

$5,000 per student

Four awards per year

Currently recruiting for 2024-25

